Julia Nan Memorial Scholarship Application

1. Scholarship Introduction

This Fund has a deep and delicate history, beginning with Julia Nan passing away. Julia Nan was an extremely warm hearted girl, who not only worked hard in her studies, but also helped her community through volunteering. With the approval of the Nan family, this fund was created in 2013, and has been managed by RACL & CAFA. The purpose of this memorial scholarship is to encourage students to learn from Julia (Xuezhou) Nan to contribute and volunteer at the local Chinese schools and their own communities. Students who are awarded for the scholarship will receive a formal certificate and gift card ($100.00) to recognize their service and contribution to local communities.

2. Scholarship Review Process

Program The current scholarships are available to Lori Chinese School, Qirui Chinese School, Chashan Chinese School, Hualian, and the Chinese community in the Triangle District. Scholarships are awarded once a year and are due to be awarded before the end of each school year. Every student at school, regardless of race, color, religion or nationality, can apply for and be recommended as long as they are enthusiastic about serving the school and the community. Please indicate the outstanding performance of the student and the student's resume on the letter of recommendation. The South Snow Boat Foundation Committee and its parents will jointly review the applicants.

3. Application Minimum Criteria

1. Applicants must be high school students, mainly in the 10th and 11th grades, enthusiastically serving Chinese schools and the community, with good academic grade, minimum GPA 3.5.
2. Applicants have at least 60 hours of accumulated volunteer service experience. Among all community service hours, at least 30 hours service should be for serving Chinese schools, organizations and local Chinese communities in North Carolina Triangle Area.
3. At least one letter of recommendation from person in-charge or staff member in the organization who the applicant has participated in or is participating in the volunteer service (Recommendation letter can be in English or Chinese)
4. An essay describing your experience as a volunteer service or a essay (can be English or Chinese, preferred in English)
5. Applicants must complete the application form.

4. Scholarship application deadline

Applicants must submit an application and submit all application materials by December 31 of each year. The scholarship review committee will end the review work by January 15 and publish the results of the selection. All application materials should be sent to:
julianan_fund@racl.org
