Short Description

Wondering how to conquer the low admission rates of elite college admissions and plan 9th-11th grade for college application success? Come and learn from a former Duke admissions officer!

Description

How to reflect deep thinking and engagement in your college application; these traits are highly prized by elite college admission officers. How to build a powerhouse profile with real student case studies.

Why Now

Establishing a powerhouse profile requires time and purposeful coordination of academic studies, extracurricular activities, internships, and research opportunities. The earlier you start, the better!

The start of the school year is the ideal time to identify and seize the right opportunities inside and outside of the school. The best opportunities will be gone quickly.

- 1) What are the new trends for college admissions?
- 2) What is the impact of AI on college admissions and what can parents do to prepare their students for the challenges ahead.
- 3) Bonus: Do you have specific questions regarding Elite college admissions and the challenges presented for your student ask Will Dixon.
